Stacey Adams

Vice President, Current Programming
ABC Entertainment

Stacey volunteers her time to help educate writers on the art and craft of screenwriting. She is currently part of team that manages scripted programming for ABC Network. She partners with studios to shepherd and bolster scripted television through collaboration and passion for storytelling.

Diana Dotter

Founder & Executive Producer
Seattle Media Ventures

As the Founder and Chief Creative Officer of Seattle Media Ventures, Diana guides the organization in the development and production of social impact television and new media entertainment written by and about women, LGBTQ, and People of Color.

Diana and Stacey will kick off the talk with a short talk about scripted tv content, the sheer amount of it now, how it is evolving in the world of social distancing, streaming & cable vs Network. We will also talk about fears and problem solving for getting your content out there in this new reality. We will open it up to Q&A.
